

Anna Lisa Kiesel (Loewe)

author

Anna Lisa Kiesel, born in Graz in 1989, started reading and writing before leaving school and has hardly put down her pen since. She quickly abandoned her German studies, which she began at the age of 15, and instead trained as a photographer and worked as a freelance copywriter. She has since dedicated herself entirely to children's and young adult books and is constantly inspired by her daughter and son to write new stories.
