Story

Flying sparks and whispering leaves

One step through the stone gate and Fiona is already in the magical Anderwald forest! Powerful animals guard special treasures among the rustling leaves and whispering plants

The mysterious firebird

A stroke of luck: Fiona's friends Jakob and Olivia are finally allowed to enter the forest. In return, however, Fiona must promise to find the firebird. The creature is up to mischief in the night sky and chars the treetops with its sparks. If the children don't succeed, the Anderwald will soon cease to exist. The three of them have to rely on their soul animals to save it and on a power deep inside Fiona that is waiting to be awakened ...

The enchanting children's book series full of emotion and magic Fantasy adventure meets everyday school life, told in a light-hearted and exciting way by Julie Leuze. This series of children's books for ages 8 and up combines the great world of emotions with the wondrous magic of the forest. Strong, powerful animals reflect a wide variety of personalities, giving the story potential for identification for young readers. Stefanie Kläßen's detailed illustrations with green spot colour bring the Anderwald to life. For fans of A Girl Called Willow, Spirit Animals and Whispering Forest.
