Sometimes life is a black cat

Lola wows the audience as a catgirl. And it's not just in her dreams at night, she will also play an important role at her school's theater group: She gets to play Snow White! To prepare for this, Lola puts herself in a real coffin to rehearse and stands on stage with Flo in Papai's restaurant. An agent notices them and invites them to a casting for a film. This is Lola's chance to become famous! But then everything turns out differently than expected ...
