Story

The Savanna: A Land of Beauty and Danger

The savanna is stunning and full of secrets, but life there can also be perilous. Join us on a journey through the vast grasslands!

Wolke the meerkat is born the youngest in the Sand Dancer clan. Much smaller and gentler than her siblings, Wolke discovers that you don't always need to be the strongest or loudest to survive. In the savanna, vigilance and cleverness count too! After being cast out of her clan, Wolke teams up with two mischievous drifters. But surviving among predators, rival clans, droughts, and storms is no easy task...

Exciting adventures and the wonders of nature!

- This children's book series takes readers aged 8 and up into the diverse habitats of the Earth - from the deep sea to dense forests and wide savannas.

- Features thrilling and touching animal adventures that inspire a love for nature and teach fascinating facts.
- Includes special knowledge pages to deepen learning, combining the appeal of a storybook with the educational value of nonfiction.
- Stunning black-and-white illustrations add emotional depth.
- As informative as a fact book and as moving as a Disney classic! Perfect for fans of Peter Wohlleben and Karsten Brensing.

Kira Gembri

Kira Gembri was born in Vienna in 1990. She remained loyal to this beautiful city after completing her degree in literature. She shares her love of books with her two children who firmly believe in fairytales. Mythical creatures don't live with her by the way – but she does have a cat who was definitely a goblin in his former life.
