Story

Early Reading fun from the Minecraft universe

Nano is angry with his teacher, he's got detention again. To get revenge, he lures a creeper into her house. But suddenly Nano himself is in danger. Can he escape the creeper?

The Reading Lions (Year 2) turn children into reading professionals: popular topics and characters provide excitement and fun. Thanks to a balanced text-to-picture ratio and the large font, which was specially developed for beginning readers, children from the age of 7 can easily grasp the content. The syllable colouring helps to recognize individual words. Accompanying information and explanations also deepen general knowledge, and children can use the questions at the end of each chapter to check whether they have understood the text correctly.

- A story for first-time readers

- With syllable colouring
- Simple text structure, large font
- With questions about the text and exciting facts

Karl Olsberg

Karl Olsberg completed his doctorate on artificial intelligence, was a management consultant, manager at a TV station and founded several start-ups. His first novel "Das System" was published in 2007 and immediately made it onto the Spiegel bestseller list. Since then, he has not only successfully written novels for adults, but also for young people and children. The thriller "Boy in a White Room" was nominated for the German Youth Literature Prize 2018. His Minecraft novels, which he initially self-published, reached number 2 on the Amazon bestseller list. In addition, his start-up "Papego", which develops the app of the same name for mobile reading of printed books, was honoured as "Content Start-up of the Year 2016" at the Frankfurt Book Fair. The author lives with his family in Hamburg.
