Story

Kalle is very excited: His team will compete in an upper league for the first time. Will they be able to defeat the strong opponent? Jonathan also can only think about football. His father is a world famous footballer. In one important game he can finally prove to his father, that he too knows how to play ...

THILO

THILO spent the first 20 years of his life in the children's corner of his parents' bookshop. He then travelled in Africa, Asia and Central America before successfully touring with friends as a cabaret trio. Today THILO lives in Mainz with his family and writes stories and scripts for TV programmes.
