Story

"Nothing lasted forever. I knew that. But in that moment, we were endless."

On the first day of the new year, Amanda makes a promise to herself: The next 365 days will be different. She will be different. Four years after her first great love bombed her heart to pieces, she meets Émil. Émil, the artist. Émil, who is as free as Amanda always wanted to be. Émil, who persuades her to finally pick up a paintbrush again. Amanda agrees to a deal, but soon realises that painting with Émil is never just painting. And so she has to ask herself: what do you do when the person who suddenly makes you feel everything again is your brother's best friend?

The finale of the Now trilogy

Art, love, social media: In the final volume of her New Adult series, SPIEGEL bestselling author Gabriella Santos de Lima skilfully and poetically weaves these timeless themes and their impact on Gen Z into an emotional brother's best friend romance.
