Story

He has a dream. She is his rival.

Perfect auction house heir by day, sprayer by night – Luis Herzog is met with incomprehension, especially from his parents. He finally sees a chance to prove himself in a public competition organized by the city of Munich. There, he repeatedly clashes with painter Minnie, who also has little sympathy for his graffiti art. But because the jury can't make up their minds, they both receive an offer: they are to combine their opposing styles and create a joint project. Luis and Minnie are forced to work together. And realize that there may be more to their heated exchange than mere competition.

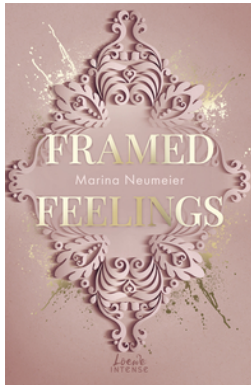

Opposites attract

In the final volume of her new adult series set in Munich's high society, Marina Neumeier not only brings together two art forms that couldn't be more different – graffiti and painting – but also makes two passionate enemies to lovers.
