Story

Lola gets going again! An interview with a fairy? No problem for Lola! Certainly not at night when she turns into a famous reporter. Then of course she and her friend Flo obviously have to write the lead article for the school newspaper. But the two find out that in reality it's not at all easy to find an exciting topic. Lola spontaneously decides to write a report about the seizing of the dangerous water pistol bandit who's been plaguing the town for weeks. But to do this, she's got to catch him first... The second volume of the series contains another thrilling and very funny story about the turbulent and exciting everyday life of her attractive heroine Lola.

- A bestseller for more than 10 years
- Over 2 million copies sold!

- Best known German girl character for the 9+ age group
- Issues such as family, friendship and empathy
- Successful movie of volume 1

Isabel Abedi

Isabel Abedi was born in 1967. After finishing school she spent a year in the US, working as an au pair girl and as an intern for a film production in Los Angeles. After her return to Germany, Isabel Abedi trained as an advertising copywriter. In the evenings she started writing stories for children and dreamed of being able to live off her own writing one day. This dream has come true now: today Isabel Abedi is a passionate writer of children's literature, writing for various publishing houses. With her series about the lovable Lola she has written herself into the hearts of critics and readers alike.

Her books have been translated into several languages and have been decorated with awards. Isabel Abedi lives in Hamburg, Germany.
