Story

Second encounters can defeat first impressions, the heart always wins ...

Although they are sisters, Lina, Kaya and Nika couldn't be more different. While Lina enjoys her life to the fullest, Kaya is a full-time perfect student. Nika, on the other hand, always falls for heartbreakers – but together the three of them fight against all odds. In life and in love!

"You can find my name, Kaia Schiffner, in the dictionary right between the words organization and statistics, at least that's what my sisters say. And yes, I like to be organized."

Kaia is known for being smart and organized - not for pulling an all-nighter, doing something forbidden or kissing a stranger. But maybe she might regret that later, so she makes a list for planning what she still wants to experience. Unfortunately, her fellow student Jakob finds the list - chaotic Jakob, of all people, who is the complete opposite of Kaia. They make a deal: Kaia helps him with their class project, and he helps her with the list. And they find that they have something in common: the importance of dreams and wishes.

- Original and modern twist on New Adult fiction – romantic-sensual, touching and an extra dose of humor
- Girl power: 3 self-confident sisters as protagonists and role models

- Stories about first steps towards independence: Career choices, fear of the future, parental pressure, exploring roots to find your place
- All titles are self-contained and can be read independently as standalones
