Story

Learning success is guaranteed!

On the colourful pages, children aged 5 and over can learn to read and write the time, develop a feel for the time of day and the seasons and differentiate between analogue and digital displays. At the same time, they can practise their motor skills and consolidate them by drawing fun pictures.

- Trains the use of the pencil
- With drawing instructions to promote fine motor skills
- Learn the clock in simple steps

Let's Discover - Times of Day combines learning the time with exciting activities and child-friendly drawing exercises to develop fine motor skills. Pre-school children learn to tell the time in a playful way, practise using the pencil and can memorise what they have learnt in the long term by linking it with fun drawings.
