Story

A society that encloses her in a protected world, a system that cares for her and educates her: Ria's life could not be more enjoyable. She is loved, privileged, talented, with a brilliant future ahead of her. But then the tables turn. All at once, Ria must confront a hostile world, and fight for her survival. A game of hide and seek begins, and a breathless flight through a dreary wasteland. She is desperately seeking to understand why her existence has suddenly been shattered. But she can't trust anyone now, she has only herself to rely on. Someone wants to do away with her, and that person could be anyone.
